

Inequality an the Family
Sixth Winter School on Inequality and Social Welfare Theory
Alba di Canazei, 9-14 January 2011

Presentations:

Monday, January 10

19.00 - 19.25: Koen Decancq (Kuleuven) "The evolution of global inequality: absolute, relative and intermediate views"

19.25 - 19.50: Santo Milasi (Università di Roma "Tor Vergata") "Inequality and Growth: panel estimates using consistent data".

Tuesday, January 11

19.15 - 19.40: Nico Pestel (IZA and University of Cologne) "The Effect of Policy on the Income Distribution in Germany and the United States: A Decomposition Approach Using Microsimulations"

Wednesday, January 12

18.00 - 18.25: Lindsey Macmillan (University of Bristol) "The Intergenerational Transmission of Worklessness in the UK"

18.25 - 18.50: Dirk Neumann (CGS, University of Cologne) "Labour supply, welfare and taxation in Europe and the US: Accounting for fairness, responsibility and preference heterogeneity"

18.50 - 19.15: Joost Vandenbossche (Ghent University - SHERPPA) "Children's health opportunities and project evaluation: Mexico's oportunidades program"

19.15 - 19.40: Martina Celidoni (Università di Padova) "Vulnerability to poverty: An empirical comparison of alternative measures".

Thursday, January 13

18.30 - 18.55: Gaëlle Ferrant (Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne) "The Gender Inequalities Index (GII) as a New Way to Define Priorities in the Fight Against Gender Inequality in Developing Countries"

18.55 - 19.20: Runli Xie (Humboldt University of Berlin) "Consumption Growth and Volatility with Consumption Externalities".

19.20- 19.45: